

Zampoñas

Zampoñas: (zam·pon·nyas) a type of panpipe made of hollow reeds of different lengths. They are played by blowing over the top of the instrument. Zampoñas come in many sizes and several shapes. They are known by different names from region to region in the Andes.