

SHEKERE

Originally from Africa, shekeres are usually made from dried gourds surrounded by netting. The netting contains beads, seeds or other wonderful rattling things!

Throughout Africa, designs for shekeres vary in size, shape and how they are played. Sometimes they are even called by a different name.

Find more coloring pages and fun musical activities for kids at www.dariamusic.com!